

K-LOVE is the primary FM station I listen to. It is important to me for spritual encouragment, as well as, that it is listener supported and commercial free. If it were to be replaced by a LPFM broadcaster an important part of my life would be displaced. The station is important as it promotes ethical living to the community.